

Cyber Law and Professional Ethics

Assignment - 1.

1. What do you mean by ethics in the business world? Explain different actions that organizations take to improve business ethics.

Business Ethics can be defined as the system of ethical beliefs guiding values, behaviours and decisions within a business organization. It defines what is right and wrong in business activities such as dealing with customers, employees, suppliers and society.

Actions that organizations take to improve business ethics:

a. Code of conduct:

- A written set of rules that employees must follow.
- Defines acceptable and unacceptable behavior.

b. Ethics Training Program:

- Employees are trained about ethical decision making

c. Strong Leadership:

- Managers and leaders act as role models.
- Ethical leadership builds trust in the organization.

d. Compliance with law:

- Organizations strictly follow government rules and regulations.

e. Fair Treatment of Employees.

2. What is corporate social responsibility? Explain reasons to pursue CSR and good business ethics for organizations.

: Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) refers to the responsibility of business towards society and the environment beyond making profits. It means companies should contribute positively to society environment and economy.

Reasons to pursue CSR and good business ethics for organizations.

1. Build positive Reputation.
 - CSR improves company image and public trust.
2. Customer Loyalty:
 - Customer prefers ethical and responsible companies.
3. Legal Compliance.
 - Helps Organization follow government rules and avoid penalties.
4. Social Development:
 - Helps improve health, education and community welfare
5. Long term profitability
 - Ethical companies often perform better in long run.

3. Explain cyber law. What are the different law relating to cyber law?

: Cyber law refers to legal rules and regulations that governs the use of the internet, computers and digital communication system. It deals with crimes and legal issues related to:

- i. Internet
- ii. Computers
- iii. Data
- iv. Online transactions.

Different laws related to cyber law

1. Cyber crime laws.

- covers crime like hacking identity theft, cyber fraud, etc.

Example: Stealing bank details online.

2. Data Protection laws.

- Protects personal and sensitive information of users
- Ensures data privacy and security.

3. Intellectual Property laws:

- Protects digital content like software, music, videos and images
- Prevents piracy and copyright violations.

4. Communication laws.

- Regulates online communication platform like social media, emails and message services.